

Explore the Ethereal Realm of 'Ghost in the Castle: The Kingdom of Wrenly 14'

Lucas smiled nervously. "Would you believe me if I said that was probably just the wind too?" Lucas whispered to his dragon.

The wind often whistled through the palace on stormy nights. Only tonight wasn't stormy. And the sound was definitely a moan—not a whistle.

"Come on, Ruslan," the prince said. "I'd really like to know who's making these creepy noises."

The two of them crept down the hall and peered around the corner. At the end of the next passageway, they saw a glowing bluish light.
