This comprehensive guide includes everything you need to know, from where to stay and eat to what to see and do. Whether you're a first-time visitor or a seasoned Nashvillian, you'll find something new and exciting in The Delaplaine 2024 Long Weekend Guide.

Where to Stay

Nashville has a wide variety of hotels and accommodations to choose from, so you're sure to find something that fits your needs and budget. If you're looking for a luxurious experience, The Hermitage Hotel is a great option. This historic hotel is located in the heart of downtown Nashville and offers stunning views of the city. For a more affordable option, try the Gaylord Opryland Resort & Convention Center. This sprawling resort is located just outside of downtown and offers a variety of amenities, including a water park, a spa, and several restaurants.

Where to Eat

Nashville is a foodie's paradise, with a wide variety of restaurants to choose from. If you're looking for traditional Southern cuisine, Hattie B's Hot Chicken is a must-try. This popular restaurant serves up some of the best hot chicken in the city. For a more upscale dining experience, try The Catbird Seat. This Michelin-starred restaurant offers a tasting menu that changes seasonally.

What to See and Do

There's no shortage of things to see and do in Nashville. If you're a music lover, be sure to visit the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum. This museum tells the story of country music and features exhibits on some of the biggest names in the industry. For a more interactive experience, try the Johnny Cash Museum. This museum is dedicated to the life and career of the legendary singer-songwriter.

If you're looking for something a little different, try the Frist Art Museum. This museum features a variety of American art, from paintings to sculptures to photography. For a taste of the outdoors, try the Nashville Zoo at Grassmere. This zoo is home to over 3,000 animals from all over the world.

Getting Around

Nashville is a relatively easy city to get around. The city has a good public transportation system, and there are plenty of taxis and ride-sharing services available. If you're planning on ng a lot of walking, be sure to wear comfortable shoes.
