Excerpt from The Dirty Game

"I saw firsthand how the sausage is made in the college football recruiting process, and it's not pretty.

Coaches lie to recruits and their families. Boosters pay players under the table. And agents steer recruits to schools where they can get the biggest payday.

I'm not going to name names, but I can tell you that some of the biggest names in college football are involved in this dirty business.

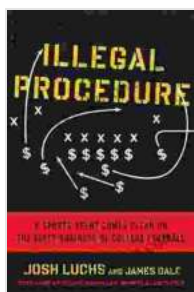

The NCAA needs to wake up and start cleaning up this mess. It's time to put an end to the cheating and corruption that is ruining the game we love."
