A Collection of Intriguing Discoveries

This captivating book presents a meticulously compiled inventory of Digby's remarkable collection, which spanned from rare manuscripts to exotic artifacts. Each item is described in exquisite detail, providing an immersive experience that transports readers to the heart of a 17th-century wunderkammer, a cabinet of wonders that showcased the marvels of the natural world.

Among the collection's highlights are:

- A collection of ancient coins and medals, bearing the faces of emperors, queens, and philosophers
- An array of scientific instruments, including a celestial globe, a magnifying glass, and a microscope - Exotic specimens from the New World, such as the skull of a toucan and the shell of a giant tortoise - Exquisite works of art, including paintings, sculptures, and tapestries

A Window into Digby's Passions and Beliefs

Beyond its intrinsic value as a historical record, this inventory offers invaluable insights into Digby's intellectual and spiritual pursuits. The collection reveals his fascination with alchemy, astrology, and the occult sciences, as well as his deep-seated interest in medicine, navigation, and exploration.

Digby's collection also reflects his unwavering faith and devotion. He owned a large number of religious books, including Bibles, prayer books, and writings by saints and theologians. These items provide a glimpse into his personal beliefs and his profound connection to his religious heritage.
