A Tapestry of Characters and Intrigue

Hunt weaves a rich tapestry of characters, each with their own motivations and desires. Atta Enwulf, a loyal subject of King Harold Godwinson, faces a life-altering decision as the Norman invasion looms. Alongside him stands Edith Swanneck, a strong-willed woman who defies societal expectations, and Tostig Godwinson, an ambitious and enigmatic earl. The novel delves into their complex relationships, alliances, and betrayals, painting a vivid portrait of the human psyche during a time of great upheaval.
